Daily Thought.
"One never knows what he can do until he tries."

The report of the immigration commissioner for the fiscal year shows that 1,062,064 landed at Ellis Island, an increase of 199,075 over the preceding twelve months. Of this number 222,606 came from southern Italy, and altogether the immigrants brought with them $19,000,000. This last item shows that they possessed an average of about $5 each, but this is of little consequence as compared with the potentialities of the individuals as wealth producers. No one expects immigrants to bring money with them. What we do expect of them, is that they bring healthy bodies and minds, thrift and industry. We have fertile fields awaiting the touch of the husbandman to make them productive. We could well dispense with the inrush of those strange sons of southern Italy with their queer ideas of right and wrong, and the flood gates might be lowered on the stream. But our main duty to ourselves and the immigrants is not to bar ingress to them, but to see that they are distributed throughout the country, so they may be brought under the influence of American system and American ideas, instead of being cramped in congested colonies in the great cities to perpetuate their home customs under alien conditions and breed a race of law haters and social outcasts. This land was consecrated as a haven for the oppressed, and it would be wicked for us, who enjoy its benefits by virtue of the enterprise and devotion of our forefathers, selfishly to deny the privilege to others who have suffered as they did. Let us proceed along the lines proposed by the immigration convention of the south and do our duty by these strangers. Then we will reap our own reward in many fold increase in the wealth and population of this section.

Lyman J. Gage says he joins the Theosophical colony because it leads to the simple life. Most any of those crank colony schemes will separate a man from the means and temptations to a life of luxury if he stays with it long enough.

Diplomatic relations were resumed between Great Britain and Serbia when King Edward received Minister Milpchevitch at St. James palace. British court officials are warned that the Serbian representative is not to be sneezed at.

Walter Wellman and his polar expedition are on the last stage of their journey by sea. Then they take to the air, but it is a gamble whether they land at the north pole or in the new Jerusalem.

John D. Rockefeller is sojourning in Europe and Frank Ball is rusticating in the mountains. Both have hard names, but the prospects of the arrest of either one are very dim.

HE WOULDN'T TELL.

Parson Goodman: "Do you know where little boys go who go fishing on Sunday?"
Bad Boy: "Aw, say; I ain't givin' away snaps, yer know. If yer lookin' fer a good fishin' hole w'y don't yer go find it yerself, same as ev'rybody else does? Yer must t'ink I'm a jay."

his automobile to protect him, while riding, from pedestrians. That is one of the differences between Russia and America.

Secretary of the Treasury Shaw requests the national banks to issue $5 bills in larger quantities. We might add, and on easier terms.

Most assuredly a Drummer's Day at the horse show would be appropriate. They are all thoroughbreds.

Anything by the name of Dewey will stay on top of the water.

Hot Days Beneficial.

It is strange we never stop to realize that the hot days are good for us. They are tho', just as they are good for crops. Nature sends the hot days to give us a good "sweating"—if the use of the vulgar word is permissible for in this way it eliminates some of the poisons from our systems. If we would get out of doors, instead of sitting in the shady nooks, and take two or three hours in the open air with the "boiling sun" boiling us right we would feel lots better, and be lots better.

This is a correct theory, and is the theory that prompted the invention of the hot-air treatments I am giving with such success in my practice. When used in connection with Osteopathy it is a specific for the ailments that give us Paducahans the most trouble malaria, chills and fever and biliousness, and I can in just a few minutes show anyone suffering of these ailments why they yield so readily to the treatment. I can refer you to people you know who will attest to my statements.

If you feel drowsy, and tired; feel like you had a taut band around your head which was being drawn closer all the time; if you are suffering of indigestion of any form, a course of Osteopathic and dry hot-air treatments will bring a quick cure, and do so without the aid of anything but aids to Nature.

Burros No Good.

Washington, July 11.—Sometime ago the insular bureau of the war department embarked upon the experiment of sending into the Philippines a few American donkeys, known as "burros," for use among the Spanish-speaking people. Mail advices from the islands now state that seven, or about half, of the consignment were drowned in the torrential rains of the "wet" season, the animals being caught out in the open and not knowing how to shelter themselves like the native beasts of burden. The natives, who were a little afraid of the animals, declared that the burros drowned because they did not have sense enough to come in out of the rain.

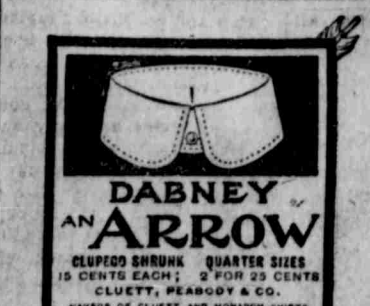

Attack Dog Catchers.

St. Louis, July 11.—An infuriated mob of a hundred negroes attacked a crew of city dog catchers on Lucas avenue today, brandishing clubs and knives, and Andrew Betzold, a dog catcher, was stabbed and slashed in the back, suffering dangerous wounds.

No Verdict Announced.

Paris, July 11.—The supreme court adjourned today after a lengthy secret session without announcing its verdict in the Dreyfus case. It is expected that its decision will not be rendered before Thursday.

The gauge registered a stage of 6.7 this morning, a fall of .5 in the last 24 hours. Weather cloudy. Business at the wharf was good today.

The Clyde will leave this evening at 6 o'clock for the round trip to the Tennessee river. Capt. Frank Brown will go out again as clerk in the place of Clerk Eugene Robertson, who was married and is off on a vacation. It seems like old times for Captain Brown to be on the boat.

The Dunbar left at noon today for Clarksville. Wednesday is the regular time for the trip to Nashville, but until the river rises it will not go any farther than Clarksville. Leaving Nashville at noon Monday the Dunbar did not arrive here until 6 o'clock this morning, having been 24 hours aground in the Cumberland river between Nashville and Clarksville.

The Dick Fowler left a little late this morning because of delay in loading. As far a trial of the relative merits of white and negro rousters was made on the Dick Fowler yesterday as could be made, and it was clearly demonstrated that the white rousters cannot stand the work. Practically a new crew is on the boat this morning.

The Joe Fowler arrived from Evansville this morning and left at 11 o'clock on the return trip.

The Savannah will arrive out of the Tennessee river tomorrow night on the return trip to St. Louis.

The Kentucky will arrive Thursday night from the Tennessee river and lie over until Saturday evening before starting on the return trip.

The City of Salfillo will leave St. Louis tonight arriving here Friday morning, on the in trip to the Tennessee river.

The Peters Lee went down the river this morning, two days ahead of her schedule time, to avoid the danger of being cut off by the low stage that threatens boats in the lower river running. This is the last trip of the Lee Line boats in this running for an indefinite time, the first effects of the low water on the packets.—Louisville Post.

Official Forecasts.

The Ohio from Evansville to Cairo, will continue falling during the next 36 to 48 hours.

The Tennessee from Florence to below Johnsonville, no material change during the next 48 hours, with a rising tendency.

The Mississippi from Chester to Cairo, will continue falling.

Duty Reduced 20 Per Cent.

Washington, July 11.—Secretary Root's proposed visit to South America has begun to bear fruit. Brazil has just announced a new tariff which reduces the duty on flour and many other American exports 20 per cent, and is designed to promote the development of commercial interchange between this country and Brazil. Condensed milk, rubber seals, watches, varnishes, typewriters, pianos, ice boxes, scales, windmills and inks (excepting writing inks) are other articles on which the 20 per cent. reduction on tariff is granted. But flour is the most important commodity in the list.

Allen Farroll and wife have returned to Paducah after visiting relatives here. Deb Curd returned to Paducah today after spending several days in the city.—Mayfield Messenger.

Complete Fusion.

Philadelphia, July 11.—Complete fusion between the Lincoln Republican party and the Democratic party of this state was effected today at a reassembled convention of the Lincoln party in this city.

"Leader's" Slayer Acquitted.

Seattle, Wash. July 11.—George Mitchell, who shot and killed Franz Edmund Creffield, who had deluded and wronged his two sisters, was acquitted this afternoon. Defense was insanity.

Horses Pass Through Jam Factory to Stable; Children Bathe in Baking Pots; Rats Infest Sausage

London, July 11.—The Brits who have been so virtuous recently over the Chicago meat-packing revelations, were today confronted with the annual report of the inspector of factories and work-shops, which shows that the conditions here are quite as revolting as anything alleged of the western packing center. Dirty factories and disgusting methods seem to be the rule instead of the exception. Jam factories, bakeries and sausage-makers are all censured as being equally filthy, and the description of one fits most of the others. Here is the report on a typical jam factory. "The boiling room lay between the yard and the stable, and the horses reached the latter through the boiling room. The sanitary accommodation was hardly separated from the rooms where the fresh fruit and uncovered jam were kept and the floors were dirty and undrained." Another factory inspector found jam pots being washed in "liquid like dark soup, which smelled abominably." The manager informed the inspector that the water was changed about "once a week." When fished out of these evil-smelling tanks the pots were allowed to stand until dry, when they were considered to be ready to receive fresh installments of preserves. Inspectors of bakeries found that it was a frequent custom to bathe the children in them after the close of work on Saturdays, and the family's weekly collection of dirty clothing was sorted in the bakeries for distribution to the laundry. The sausage factories, says the report, are mostly owned by Germans, and are "small, dilapidated, badly lit, and are often infested by rats."

Young America Sails The Seas Without Cent of Pocket Money

Philadelphia, July 11.—"I ain't got a cent, but I'll be home in three weeks," said Guy Krumm, aged fifteen, of Danville, Ky., who arrived yesterday with two other boys on the American liner Friesland from a two years' tour of the world. The other two plucky specimens of young America were Otto Ford, eighteen years old, of Seattle, and Glenn Howell, of Atlanta. It was in November, 1904, that the boys ran away. They met in Chicago and made their way to Seattle before shipping on the Marion Frazer for New Zealand. Ford and Howell shipped as able seamen, and Krumm, owing to his youth, was accepted as cabin boy. The boys sailed about 33,000 miles. Twice on their voyage they nearly starved.

AN APPEAL FOR JIM HOWARD'S FAMILY

Responding to an urgent appeal made by republicans and democrats alike, The Sun presents a plain statement of fact in regard to James B. Howard's stricken family.

James B. Howard is now confined in the penitentiary, where he will serve a life sentence, having been convicted of the murder of William Goebel, five years ago.

Mrs. James B. Howard and her three little children are the innocent victims of the predicament Mr. Howard finds himself placed in by process of law. For five years this heroic woman has labored unceasingly, and never without hope, to secure a vindication for her husband. Their little home has been swept into the legal maelstrom, and today they are dependent on charity for the clothes they wear, and even for the bread they eat.

This condition will not be permitted to remain as long as there are tender hearts in Old Kentucky. This loyal wife has, by a devotion typical of Southern womanhood, touched the finest instincts of the human race. Facing the darkest gloom, from day to day, she has presented to a devoted husband a smiling and unflinching optimism that has undoubtedly braced him for the heavy ordeal he has undergone.

These three children are winsome children—for both the father and mother are persons of education and refinement. They are denied a home, an opportunity to acquire knowledge, a right to a father's care and protection.

Is it not a worthy case? Think as you may of the guilt or innocence of Jim Howard, here are helpless beings cast adrift on a world none too sympathetic, unless aroused to the cry of urgent want.

The Sun will acknowledge receipt of all money sent to it for "The Mrs. James B. Howard Fund."

A dime, a dollar a hundred dollars, or any amount, given in such a cause, will be "broad cast upon the waters," and such, the Great Father assures us "will come back an hundredfold."
